LABOR DAY PROCLAMATION

GOVERNOR HASKELL PRAISES WORKING MEN AND ASKS
STATEWIDE OBSERVANCE.

ALL PUBLIC OFFICES TO CLOSE

Throughout the State Places of Trade and Public Offices Will Recognize September the Fifth.

State-wide observance of Labor day, Monday, Sept. 5, is asked by Governor C. N. Haskell, in an executive proclamation made public Monday.

All public offices in the state will close.

Governor Haskell's proclamation is as follows:

"The laboring people of Oklahoma bear the distinction of having reared the monuments that mark the progress and development of the new state.

"The plains that have been transformed into fields of grain and fruit; the forests that have been cleared for farms and homes; the cities and towns that dot our fertile prairies and adorn the banks of our rivers and streams; the buildings of brick and stone that glare in the midday sun; the railroads and telegraphs, the arteries along which courses the wealth of a nation; the nerves that tingle with energy and strength of the mighty force of our people—all speak more eloquently than words of the tribute due to those who toil with their hands in the battles of life.

"It is a source of pride and satisfaction that the laboring people of Oklahoma are prosperous and happy. The possibilities of the future for the laboring men are hopeful. The laws of Oklahoma guarantee protection in all just causes, and our undeveloped resources and progressive citizenship promise prosperity for the future.

"In view of the great force our laboring class represents, and the prosperous conditions which surround our people, it is proper that a day be set aside as a holiday, at which time the laboring classes of our state may meet and enjoy themselves. Recognizing these conditions, and the duty imposed upon me by law, I, therefore, declare and proclaim Monday, Sept. 5, 1910, a public holiday to be known as Labor day, and recommend that fitting exercises be held by our people on that day throughout the state.

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state of Oklahoma, at Oklahoma City, this 29 day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1910, and of the Independence of the United States of America the 135th.

C. N. HASKELL,
Governor of the State of Oklahoma.
Attest: Thos. P. Smith, Secy. of State."

COLORADO TO LEARN PAVING FROM OKLAHOMA

Some Problems to Be Met—The Porous Soil, the Widening of Streets Are Conditions to Meet.

Colorado Springs, Aug. 30.—Oklahoma City may teach Colorado Springs how to pave its streets. The city council has decided to secure the services of two well known practical engineers to come to Colorado Springs and in conjunction with City Engineer Waggener and the city officials study conditions preliminary to the paving of the business district. It is understood that W. C. Burk city engineer of Oklahoma City may be one of those who will be asked to come to Colorado Springs for this purpose. Paving in Colorado Springs, presents many peculiar problems, and because of the porous soil and favorable climatic conditions has not heretofore been considered a necessity, but the growth of the city has made it within recent months, an important issue. Among points to receive special consideration in the investigations are the widening of the sidewalks, the kind of paving material, the extent to which any of the streets shall be parked and other features. With streets 100 feet wide and avenues 140 feet wide, the problem is one of an unusual character.

A Word to Mothers

One of the important points in making a child's, lady's or gentleman's face pleasant to look upon, is having a good straight set of teeth; they are often much neglected.

DANGER OF MONEY FAMINE PAST

CHICAGO BANKER DECLARES
THERE IS PLENTY OF MONEY ON HAND.

CASH SUFFICIENT TO MOVE CROPS

Fields Will Produce Much More Than at First Supposed—Sees Prosperity Ahead.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 29.—That the general business of the country will sail along as smoothly as can be wished from this time on, is the opinion of James B. Forgan, the Chicago banker. He declared yesterday that business has reached normal again and that all danger of a serious money stringency for crop moving purposes and the like has passed, along with the fear that there might be a further depression. "After a number of little hitches, annoying in themselves, but of no great financial moment, we have reached a normal basis again, in my opinion, and will get through the fall with only the usual crop moving money stringency, for which we are well prepared.

"Some time ago it was declared on all hands that the crop would be practically a failure and all sorts of dire predictions were made. Something appears to have been wrong with the prophets, however, for the crops, we find are not nearly so poor as was generally supposed.

"While there is the usual crop movement money stringency, as I have said, the West will not need to call on the East for money with which to move the crops of the Northwest. I know of no help, no aid of any kind, we will need from the East, except, perhaps, we may ask some of the Eastern banks to pay us what they owe us."

DEALS BLOW TO SUPREME COURT

Roosevelt Declares That Decisions Have Been Made Contrary to Principles of Democracy.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 29.—Acts of the supreme court of the United States were sharply criticised by Theodore Roosevelt today in an address in the state capitol before the Colorado legislature. The former president cited decisions by the supreme court which he declared were contrary to the principles of democracy. Everywhere he went in Denver he was greeted by cheering multitudes which blocked the streets, interfered with traffic and packed to suffocation the various buildings in which he spoke. The auditorium in which he delivered his speech on conservation holds 15,000 people, and yet it was large enough to seat only a part of the throng which clamored for admission. The streets outside the building were crowded with other thousands who sought in vain to gain admittance.

"I just feel as if I would like to stay here for good," Colonel Roosevelt said after he had made three of his five speeches. He added that he was taken utterly by surprise by the size of the crowds which turned out to greet him.

From the moment he arrived here until he went to bed Colonel Roosevelt was kept on the move. In addition to his speech in the auditorium, under the auspices of the National Live Stock association, and his speech before the legislature, he addressed the Spanish war Veterans, who are in encampment here; the live stock association at a banquet this evening and Denver Press club at a chuckwagon luncheon at Overland Park.

At the chamber of the house of representatives at the capitol he was greeted by a crowd which cheered him so frequently that he had difficulty in proceeding with his speech. On the wall behind the colonel was a large picture of President Taft draped with the colors.

SHOOTS IN TO CROWD SEVEN YOUNG MEN INJURED

Gainesville, Tex., Aug. 29.—The little town of Myra, ten miles west of here, was thrown into a state of excitement last night when an attempt at wholesale assassination was made there.

At about 9 o'clock a number of young men had congregated on the street and as they were talking standing close together an unknown man walked up to within a few feet of the crowd and fired both barrels of a double-barrel shotgun into the midst and made his escape.

The shot took effect in seven of the young men's heads and bodies and they have all been under the care of physicians but none of them are fatally wounded.

Being members of the best families in town added to the excitement, and Sheriff Bringman went to the scene to look for the party who did the shooting. He returned here tonight, having a young man in custody.

ARRESTED AND HELD IN INDIAN CASES

Shawnee, Aug. 29.—A. T. Brown and W. L. Chapman were arrested here today by United States Marshal Jack Abernathy, bearing papers from the federal court at Guthrie, issued upon requisition of the Republic of Mexico, where they had been indicted for uttering forged instruments, in connection with the taking of deeds to Kickapoo Indian lands. The warrants were read to Brown and Chapman at the Norwood hotel, where they met the marshal through an appointment made by their attorney, B. B. Blakeney.

The things alleged against Brown and Chapman and others have been the subject of a number of investigations, federal and otherwise, and figured in two cases in the Pottawatomie county courts. The first of these was tried before a jury in the district court. The trial lasted for nine days, and all the charges of fraud, forgery and intimidation were brought forward to invalidate the deed given by the Indian, but the jury, after being out but a few minutes, brought in a verdict against the Indian.

The second case was the Wah-na-ke Thab-hah case tried last week in the superior court. In this case also charges of fraud, forgery and duress were made, and the court in announcing its finding called especial attention to the fact that none of the charges had been substantiated in the slightest particular.

Brown and Chapman and their friends are confident that the Mexican cases against them will be dismissed upon proper investigation, or that if they are tried, they will easily prove their innocence of any criminal intent.

$16 ON THE BALE JUMP IN COTTON HIGHEST PRICE PAID SINCE THE CIVIL WAR, AUGUST OPTION ADVANCED 318 POINTS.

BULLS CONTROL THE MARKET

Many Millions Made, But No One Has Attempted to Accurately Figure the Big Profits of the Bull Leaders.

New York, Aug. 29.—Touching the highest level since the Civil War, August cotton sold for 20c a pound this morning.

In a panic of local and foreign shorts, lasting about an hour, the August option advanced 318 points, or nearly $16 a bale, from the closing figures of Saturday.

Highest Since Civil War.
Twenty cents was the highest price for the position offered by one broker, who received the cotton from W. P. Brown. Brown immediately offered 100,000 August at 20c and the tension was somewhat relieved. On the theory that this marked the culmination of the upward movement room traders at one began to swell the late months forcing a moderate decline. August shortly before noon declined to 18.2c and prices were irregular, but the trade kept active. Later months failed to share the August jump and were 1 to 3 points lower, although rallies occurred, due to a little outside buying on the dry weather in Texas.

It was taken for granted that the Brown offer meant that the remaining August short interests would settle at 20c, or a least buy back their contracts at the figure and that this represented practically the culmination of the bull deal. On Friday morning August contracts sold at 16.07c. At 20c today they showed an advance of over $19 per bale, and had made a new high record of prices, dating from the Civil war. The drop from the high price was not considered significant of any change in the bull position, but it was thought probable that some people who had a few hundred bales of cotton for which they had been waiting for a fancy price had regarded the Brown offer as marking the limit they were likely to obtain and let go their cotton. The bulls were absolutely in control of August this morning, and in the opinion of many traders they might as well have put the price up to 25c as

The committee which has been looking into matters in Oklahoma has handed out several exonerations, and every one of them, it seems to us, is quite warranted by the facts educed.
But the work of the committee will not have been in vain, even though it should have to report that no charge of corruption had been sustained. If it had done nothing else than enlighten the country of the enormous lawyers' fees the Indians have had to pay in the effort to get their affairs with the government adjusted it would have performed a valuable service. The feature that impresses us most is that after so many years of legal controversy there should be anything left of the tribal estate to distribute among the Indians. The chief value of the investigation is that it will probably put a stop to the process which seem ed destined to transfer into the pockets of the lawyers about everything belonging to the Indians.—Dallas News.

CLOTHES AND THE CHURCH.

Last Sunday was another day that men wished they could attend church without their coats, and why shouldn't they? The good ladies have learned to dress for warm weather, and why not the men? It might appear a little unconventional at first for men to attend church minus their coats, but it would be a whole lot more comfortable and more of them would doubtless go to church if they might with propriety leave their coats at home.—Ennis News.

Problematical. Men who stay away from church because they do not wish to go coatless to the sacred edifice probably would have some other excuse if negligee costumery were made the accepted mode. As for the ladies having learned to "dress for warm weather," you are certainly in error. They haven't learned any such thing. True, they look cool and seem not to perspire at all, but it's all in the looks. As a matter of fact they are so hot under their harness they come home feeling resentful against civilization and almost envying the heathens who, in their blindness, can see nothing wrong with going around in their nighties.—Dallas News.

The disposition of the average man will be to think that Mr. Pinchot exaggerates when he declares that such men as Senator Carter, Senator Heyburn and Mr. Mondell are at least partly responsible for the forest fires in the Northwest. The words of an enthusiast are always discounted.
Nevertheless the man who is familiar enough with the record to appreciate how persistently and relentlessly, and in what devious ways, men such as those named by Mr. Pinchot have obstructed conservationists at every step will feel that the indictment is not overdrawn. These men have opposed the Forest Service at every step. It could not get an additional warden, an additional guard, without overcoming their opposition.
Why? Because the Forest Service is committed unreservedly to the cause of conservation, and it was conceived by these men that any act which strengthened the power of the Forest Service increased the opposition to their own private enterprises. As an abstract proposition, of course, they favored the utmost precaution against forest fires, but when greater precaution meant greater policing power for the Forest Service, they have preferred the existing fire hazard. It requires no great power of imagination to liken the policy of these men to that of the dog in the manger.—Dallas News.

THE HEARST PAPERS.

William Randolph Hearst secured some prestige for his newspaper by advocating certain reforms and championing the cause of what Abraham Lincoln chose to call "the plain people." But of late years Mr.
Hearst has executed some singular tricks in journalistic acrobatics for a reformer, doing some lightning change" stunts that have caused some of his followers of the past to become dubious as to his sincerity.

The Hearst publications have recently championed the Big Business interests, and their appeals in behalf of the notorious ship subsidy movement had the appearance of being more than disinterested utterances.

Recently, too, there has developed a significant deal, in which Thomas F. Ryan, New York high financier, is reported to have purchased 47 per cent of the stock of the Chicago Examiner, for which it is said he paid $900,000.
If the interests with which Mr.
Ryan is identified should secure considerable stock in all of Mr. Hearst's newspaper publications it would not be unreasonable to expect that there should be a radical change in the editorial policies of the journals, and that they should become cuckoos of standpatism might readily be surmised.

The Speed of a Great City.

Statistics of the great city of New York show the following startling facts:

- Every 40 seconds an immigrant arrives.
- Every 3 minutes some one is arrested.
- Every 6 minutes a child is born.
- Every 7 minutes there is a funeral.
- Every 13 minutes a couple gets married.
- Every 42 minutes a new business firm starts up.
- Every 48 minutes a building catches afire.
- Every 49 minutes a ship leaves the harbor.
- Every 7 hours some one fails in business.
- Every 51 minutes a new building is erected.
- Every 1 1-4 hours some one is killed by accident.
- Every 8 hours an attempt to kill some one is made.
- Every 8 1-2 hours some couple is divorced.
- Every 10 hours some one commits suicide.
- Every 2 days some one is murdered.

Attention Democrats.

Very few names were filed before the primary for precinct committe-men. At the last meeting of the county committee it was decided that where no election had been held the old committeemen should continue to serve until their successors were appointed, and that the county chairman should appoint on recommendation of the local clubs of the various voting precincts. It is of utmost importance that these places be filled at once, so I urge every club to meet at once and take action in the matter, advising me immediately of its choice.

M'GUIRE REPLIES TO STEPHENS

SAYS EVIDENCE GIVEN ON INVES-TIGATION STANDS FOR ITSELF.

His Amendment Provided That All Individual Contracts Must Be Approved by the President.

Pawnee, Ok., Aug. 29.—Congressman Bird McGuire today issued a statement in reply to Congressman Stephens of Texas, concerning the letter of exoneration given the Oklahoma congressman by a majority of the congressional committee here investigating the Gore charges and the Mc-Murray individual Indian contracts.
McGuire says that the people need not take the verdict of the majority of the committee nor of Mr. Stephens.
The statement in part says:

"The evidence stands for itself, and in his statement Mr. Stephens does not say that evidence was produced before the committee showing that I had an interest in the McMurray or any other contracts. He knows the majority was correct when it said that there was no evidence to warrant a charge or suggestion that I had an interest in any Indian contracts and that the people who have followed the evidence know this. I was brought into the matter for political reasons, just as I was sued in the last campaign for political reasons, the suit being dropped after the campaign closed. Mr. Stephens only raises a question on the amendment I handed to Mr. Tawney.

"My amendment provided that individual contracts must have the approval of the president and secretary of the interior. It was not mandatory upon these officers to approve the contracts, as those who are splitting hairs for political purposes would have the people believe, but if it were true that the amendment made the approval mandatory, still it left the amount of the fee entirely in the hands of the president and the secretary of the interior, and they could fix it at $1. When I was on the witness stand Mr. Stephens declared he was unwilling to leave such matters to the president and secretary of the interior, though on April 22, two months before Mr. Gore made his statement, the president submitted a message to congress showing that Messrs. Roosevelt, Garfield, Ballinger, Wickersham and himself had refused to approve the Mc-Murray contracts when they were presented for approval."

KEEPING CHILDREN IN SCHOOL.

Before many days the city schools will be opening again. The question of whether or not children shall be sent back to them for another year or whether they shall go to work is an important one, and one that deserves the most careful attention on the part of the parents.

The state insists upon a minimum amount of education. The city provides, at heavy expense, the means for securing more than the minimum required, and believes it to be an investment that pays the best kind of returns. It is a fact that a high school diploma represents almost as much in most respects today as a college diploma did some years ago.

The opportunity to gain an education is not one to be overlooked by either children or parents, nor it is one to be undervalued because the tuition is free. It is one to be improved unless there is some obstacle which makes it impossible, which is rarely the case.

Thousands deplore the deficiencies in their education caused by the fact that they did not, for some reason remain in school. Some of them try to make it up by hard study in later years, for which they deserve the greatest credit.

To deny a child the opportunity to continue in school, or to allow one to leave school before completing the course provided merely because study seems irksome and the chance to earn wages seems attractive, is to say the least, a very serious error and one that will be the cause of deep regret in after years.

So far as allowing the children to go to work, the small wages they receive cannot be compared with the benefits they will derive from a few years more of schooling. As to that it is often the case that this added education makes it possible for the child to secure positions after leaving school that he could not obtain without it. So far as money is concerned, it is a poor policy to allow a child to leave school before completing the work there. Two or three years' small wages will not make good the difference. And besides, it is not a question to be decided on the basis of money.

This is a very important matter and ought to have the most painstaking thought on the part of parents.—Ex.

About the Artesian Water.

We wish to announce that there has never been any thing wrong with the artesian well, that caused the water to have a peculiar odor. Upon investigation we found that the whole cause was due to some one priming the pump with bad water and the pump was giving the water the odor. We have it thoroughly cleaned, and will take due care that any one else does not use any such water about the well.

Miss Haskell Will Not Go on Stage.

Guthrie, Ok., Aug. 29.—Miss Jane Haskell, daughter of Oklahoma's governor, will not go on the stage. A denial has been given by the governor, who says that his daughter's ambition is to become an efficient kindergarten teacher, and that she is taking a special course at a Cincinnati school to qualify herself. Miss Haskell was formerly a teacher in the Edmond State Normal school.

CHICAGO SAFE BLOWERS GET $10,000,000 STAGE MONEY

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 29.—Three safe-blowers' partly wrecked the Ashland Theater early today, dynamited the safe and secured $10,000,000 in stage money and $500 in real cash.
The Lake street police arrived on the scene eight hours after the cracks men had departed. They believe they can recover the $10,000,000 in stage money, unless the safeblowers buy vegetables with it from some newly arrived immigrant. The $500 in legal tender they have no hopes of recovering.

Tearing down the real plush curtain draperies in front of the stage —the theater is owned by Werner & Ottman, dealers in men's furnishings —the burglars carried them to the theater office to use in deadening the noise of the explosion.

PROFESSIONAL WRESTLER TURNS FARMER

Has All the Money He Needs and Will Farm the Rest of Life.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 29.—With 324 victories to his credit out of a total of 331 matches, Frank Gotch has decided to quit wrestling. In a letter to a local sporting writer the champion declares he has all the money he needs, and that he has grown tired of the game. Gotch's letter is as follows:

"There will be nothing doing for me in the wrestling game any more.
I am a professional farmer now and am going to stick to that the rest of my life. I have all the money I need and am tired of wrestling. This goes. I am through forever."

Guthrie, Ok., Aug. 28.—The state board of Public Affairs has received a requisition from the school land

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by

THE REAL DAMAGE FROM FOREST FIRES

750,000,000 Feet of Timber in Four States, Enough to Build 55,000 homes, Would Run 400 Saws 6 Months, and Give $75, 000,000 in Wages.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 30.—Expert cruisers in Spokane, who are now compiling reports from the burned districts in Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Montana, estimate that the recent forest fires destroyed or damaged more than 750,000,000 feet of timber in the four states.

Converted into Merchantable lumber it is estimated this timber would have supplied building material for the construction of from 50,000 to 55-000 four and five-room cottages, or enough to house the entire population of any city in the four states named.

To reduce this timber to commercial uses would keep 400 saw-mills in the inland Empire busy from five to six months, while at the present cost of cutting and marketing an army of skilled and ordinary laborers would have received $7,500,000 in wages.

F. J. Davies, secretary of the Coeur d'Alene Timber Protective association, says that while the loss of life has not been as large as the dispatches have indicated, he estimates the timber loss in that part of northern Idaho is not less than 500,000,000 feet.

James P. McGoldrick of Spokane, president of the Western Pine Manufacturers' association, believes the fire losses in Idaho have been greatly exaggerated, though he admits the situation probably is the worst in the history of the Pacific northwest.

"According to recent estimates, there was 350,000,000,000 feet of standing timber in the inland Empire forests," Mr. McGoldrick said.
"The lumber interests have been hit hard and the losses are enormous, but I am of the opinion that many of the reports sent out were gross exaggerations. Of course, I do not believe this was intentional on the part of the newspaper correspondents."

Officers of the Western Forestry and Conservation association say it is impossible to ascertain the total loss at present.

Dr. Gallohr, of the firm of Drs. Wilson and Gallohr, eye, ear, nose and throat specialists of Shawnee, will be in Ada at Hotel Harris the 2nd and 4th Mondays in each month.

WHAT SUNK THE MAINE WILL BE REVIVED SOON

Washington, Aug. 29.—It transpires that the board of army engineers appointed to investigate the possibility of raising the wreck of the battleship Maine, sunk in Havana harbor, just before the Spanish-American war, intends to try to find out the cause of the blowing up of the Maine so that this much discussed question is likely to be widely debated again in the near future. The first meeting of the board of engineers, appointed under the recent act of Congress, which also appropriated money for the investigation, was held at the army engineers' office here this morning, with Col. W. M. Black, U.
S. A. senior officer of the board, acting chairman.

THE COUNCIL MEETING

Sommer Jones Elected Day Man for Fire Department—New Contract with City Engineer.

The council met in regular session with all members present except Councilman Clark of the Third ward. The report of the city engineer on the side walks was read and discussed, but no definite action was taken and the matter passed over till another meeting.

Another matter of importance that was discussed at length is the matter of enforcing the ordinance requiring sewerage connection in the business districts of the town. The general opinion was that the ordinance was already a law and would have to be enforced. This led to a discussion of the water situation. The dry season being on now, the rapidity with which the water in the city reservoir is disappearing, the water that will be demanded to run machinery and the street sprinkler—these things make up what in a measure constitutes the city's water problem. A good deal of talk on the different methods of procedure to get relief was brought forth—but all agreed the only immediate relief would be a good rain.

A new contract with the city engineer was entered into. Under the previous contract the engineer was allowed a salary of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month paid out of the engineering fund, besides he was allowed the use of the engineer's office, and the instruments belonging to the city, and was under the supervision of the council.

The new contract simply puts the city engineer on a commission basis, with a mutual advantage to both the city and the engineer, under the new contract he is still allowed the free use of the engineer's office and instruments, is under bond and works under the supervision of the council. But, when there is no work to do for this city he is at liberty to work elsewhere if he so chooses.

There were three applicants for the position of day man and driver for the fire department; namely, Dic Harris, Bob Lawson and Sommer Jones. Jones receiving the majority of the votes was appointed by the mayor and the appointment was confirmed by the council.

O. C. Walker and Van Daniels were allowed $9.35 each for labor performed.

Geo. Kice is transacting business in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Littlefield and daughter, Lucile, have returned to Sulphur Springs, Tex., after a few weeks visit with Guy McElreath and family.

Deputy Sheriff John Kitchens is up from Stonewall today. Some one said to look for the Gouge boys. He says there were only seven drunks locked up at Stonewall this morning.

We wish to announce that if any one has had unsatisfactory work done at the Studio while we were away, upon your complaint we will gladly adjust it satisfactorily.

KEEP THEM OFF THE STREETS AND SIDEWALKS

Chief of Police Hounshell says that the law allows merchants to unload goods on the sidewalks but after the goods are unloaded and unpacked the empty boxes must not be placed on the side walks, and after today he will proceed to move the empty boxes found, according to law.

A. Another matter he wishes attention called to is the curfew law. Arrangements will be made with the light plant to blow a curfew whistle at 9 o'clock p. m. and that will mean for all youngsters under sixteen years of age who are on the streets without being properly accompanied by an elder person according to the law to go home.

SINGULAR CASE IN JUSTICE COURT YESTERDAY

One of the most singular cases that ever came under the jurisdiction of Judge Brown was brought before him late yesterday afternoon. Undersheriff A. L. Miles was arraigned on a complaint from other court house officers for secretly and without their knowledge and consent spiriting away on last Sunday morning, Sheriff's Smith's daughter, Mrs. Clara Leeper, and taking her before Squire Roberts of Bebee and marrying her. Mr. Miles entered a plea of not guilty—but Judge Brown feeling that he should have been the officiating justice at the wedding instead of Squire Roberts, sternly informed the culprit that the records of the county showed beyond the shadow of a doubt the accusation was true; and straightway assessed his punishment at: to-wit, to be ridden on a rail. But the sentence was commuted and the defendant was released upon paying five big watermelons to the crowd.

TIPS On Choosing a Bank

Before lining up with a bank you should investigate several points in connection with it. In the first place ascertain whether or not the bank is prospering and developing along with the other lines of business of the community. If a bank's business isn't prospering something is wrong. In the second place are the officers and directors of the bank good, safe business men who deal squarely with the people? Watch out for a bank operated by tricksters or sharpers. In the third place do the directors really direct or are they merely figure heads? Look out for a bank whose directors know little or nothing about its business.

We want you to investigate this institution. We know its business is prospering and increasing right along. You know its officers and directors and we believe they are safe, honorable, business men. The directors of this bank say what shall and shall not be done. They pass upon the loans regularly and their instructions are carried out to the letter. This bank is what they make it—A Strong, Prospering, Conservative institution.

WHEAT ON THE BALE

to 20c a pound. Considering every thing, many thought that the bull leaders showed great moderation when they entered the ring with an offer of 100,000 bales at 20c, checking the advance at that figure. This offer, apparently, has had the effect of bringing out all the cotton that had arrived here very late in the month, and which was being held for fancy prices.

Not a great many bales—perhaps 15,000—actually changed hands on the advance from 16.82c, the closing price of last week, to 20c for August this morning.

Later, after reacting from 20c to 18.20c under scattered selling of a few hundred bales, August against advanced on renewed buying by shorts, touching 19.90c in the afternoon, or within 10 points of the high record.

No one has attempted any accurate figuring of the profits of the big bull leaders. Brown, Eugene G. Scales and Frank B. Hayne.

In all the bull leaders have handled spot cotton to the amount of 800,000 bales, valued approximately at $65,000,000. But the bulk of this has been shipped abroad and just how much of it has been actually sold and how much of it may now be held on consignment at foreign points is uncertain. Inasmuch, however, as the bulls have handled contracts for many thousand bales in excess of those on which they have actually received cotton, they have undoubtedly taken large speculative profits no matter how their deal may turn out when their last bale of spot cotton has been sold. In the New York stock they still own about 100,000 bales.

Rumors circulated in the trade after the close of the business today were that there was still a considerable August short interest outstanding, which has until noon Wednesday to cover. At that hour trading in August is over and with it ends all business in the old crop season of 1909-1910. For the last three or four months the bull campaign in the old crop, although based chiefly on the fact that the crop grown during the summer and autumn of 1910 is 3,000,000 bales under normal requirements has had the encouragement of very unfavorable reports from the coming crop and predictions that the world was facing a future inadequate supply. Naturally another short supply following a year of general curtailment and procrastination in purchases of both raw material and finished goods might mean another season of extremely high prices, and this expectation has undoubtedly encouraged the bull traders in their policy of carrying spot supplies forward into the new season.

Latterly reports concerning the prospect have been confusing. Owing to drouth in the southwest, deterioration has been reported in that section, but weather conditions over other parts of the cotton belt since the first of August have been considered much more favorable and some reports have shown considerable improvement. The next report of the government on conditions will be issued at noon next Friday and owing to the conflicting nature of recent private advices, opinions as to its showing vary largely.

The steam roller is being fired up this afternoon preparatory to being placed on the streets tomorrow.

CITY MAY HAVE BIG FISH POND NEXT SPRING

Last night at the council meeting, the discussion of the water problem incidentally led to the discussion of the fish in the city reservoir.

Some members of the council claim that the fish have grown and multiplied wonderfully—that the water is very conducive to the growing of bass especially, and that since there are fish in the reservoir now that weigh several pounds, the large ones should be caught out because if they are allowed to remain with the smaller fish the smaller fish will be devoured. So it was generally agreed to continue prohibiting fishing in the reservoir until next spring and then to sell permits, restricting, however, the fisherman in the number, size and kind of fish to be caught in one day.

But put away your rod and reel till next spring and then Mr. Sportsman you will have an opportunity to patronize a home industry.

Dutch Journalists Touring World.

Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 29.—The cynosure of all eyes due to his eccentric costume, Gottfried Rodriguez appeared on Guthrie streets yesterday, clothed in the peasant costume of Holland. Rodriguez is the dramatic critic of the Amsterdam Telegraph, and is touring the world under a contract which precludes the carrying of baggage, money—the usual impediments of travelers. He arrived from Wichita, Kan., on a M. M. motor cycle which was given him by the company in New York. Before that he either walked or worked his way on boats and trains.

Rodriguez is not attempting to make record time but loafs along at any pace to suit his fancy. He has a time limit of three and a half years for the world encircling trip, however and has now covered about 20,000 mile so far the distance. He will go to Mexico after leaving Oklahoma and Texas. His trip while bringing to his notice many of the beauty spots of America, which he has photographed for illustration of articles which he is under contract to furnish his paper every week, has taught him the stern fact that American roads are not what they are cracked up to be. Better highways are found in countries across the water he says.

Mrs. Mason Deceased.

The remains of Mrs. Avelia Mason, whose death after an illness of only twenty-four hours shocked the community and brought great grief to her friends and sorrow for her several well known Ada sons, was conducted to the M. K. & T. depot this morning for shipment to her old home, Huntsville, Tex. The local druggists of the city acted as pall bearers.

Preceding the removal of the deceased to the depot, funeral services were held at the residence, conducted by Rev. Stubblefield, pastor of the first Baptist church. A large assemblage of sorrowing friends, gathered at the depot in regard for the family among whom were the more prominent people of the city.

Mr. B. A. Mason, prominent citizen of Ada and Mrs. Joe Herndon, highly respected old lady, son and sister of deceased, accompanied the remains to Huntsville. All the boys were present at the death of Mrs. Mason, excepting Mr. Joe Mason of San Angelo, Tex., and Bluford Mason of Ada, the latter of whom was in the eastern part of the state on business and could not be reached. Mr. Joe Mason, who formerly resided in Ada will meet and join the funeral party at Houston, as also will Mrs. Dr. Arnold of Houston the other sister of the deceased. There is a brother residing at Huntsville, being Mr. Lou Oliphint.

It was with some reluctance that Mrs. Joe Herndon's relatives allowed her to accompany the remains of her sister so far south at this season, when she is so aged, but her spirit and faithfulness accorded to her the sad privilege of accompanying her dead sister to the old home, the last resting place.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Ada women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders.

Can Ada sufferers desire stronger proof than this woman's words? Mrs. H. L. Sadler, of Coalgate, Ok., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills did more for me than any other kidney remedy I ever used. I suffered for more than three years from kidney disease in a severe form. My back ached constantly and there were dull, bearing down pains through my loins. I was also subject to dizzy spells and at times my sight became blurred. When the attacks were at their height, I was helpless and had to sit down. I doctored and tried everything I could think of in the hope of finding relief, but I was only helped temporarily. Finally I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and shortly after beginning their use, I received a complete cure."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Engaged Girl's Worries

"Haven't you noticed how thin I've grown?" asked the engaged girl of her chum, who had just returned from a trip.

"You aren't quite up to the usual mark, now that you call my attention to it, dear," murmured the chum.

"Let me see," said the engaged girl. "It was six weeks ago, wasn't it, that I wrote you Tom had proposed? He passed one delicious week with me, then, three days after he arrived home, my ring came. Yes, I know you've been dying to ask me about it, and that's what I'm coming to."

"Well, when I opened the box and saw that lovely solitaire it seemed as though Tom was near me somehow. Of course, any engaged girl can understand when I say that it compensated in a measure for his absence. The family were exclaiming over the ring when I took it from the box and started to slip it on my finger."

"For goodness' sake, child," gasped Aunt Mary, "don't you know that it's bad luck for anyone but Tom to put that ring on your finger the first time?"

"Of course everybody laughed, as we always do whenever Aunt Mary parades her superstitions. Then, just to show her that I didn't give a particle of weight to such foolishness, I slipped the ring on and waved my finger under Aunt Mary's nose. She looked deeply injured, as usual, and walked out of the room. In my thoughtless way I went on admiring the diamond and thinking what a dear Tom is."

"That afternoon as I was dressing to go to the embroidery circle meeting and anticipating the sensation my ring would create I suddenly remembered that I had left it on the washstand in the bathroom. Of course I ran to get it, and just as I reached forward to pick it up, in some unexplainable manner it slipped forward on the marble and down it went into the pipe!"

"I was simply paralyzed for a moment. Then I flew downstairs and phoned for a plumber to come post-haste, meanwhile wringing my hands and not daring to try to recover the ring myself for fear I might not get it at all. Mother and Aunt Mary were in the library and had heard me when I phoned. Mother was a perfect dear and never reproached me for my carelessness, but if ever a mortal looked triumphant Aunt Mary did."

"It seemed ages before the plumber arrived, and when he finally did come of course he had to go back to the shop for some tool or other. Well, when he got started he worked and worked, and after an agonizing time he actually fished up my ring! He believed I could have kissed him, grimy as he was! But I was so worn out from the nervous strain that I wasn't fit to go to the meeting. It was too late, anyhow."

"The next day I took my ring down to the jeweler's to have him clean it, because some particles of dirt had got under the setting and I wouldn't attempt to clean it myself. I took it off and laid it on the counter while he wrote my name on a little slip. When he reached for the ring it wasn't there!"

"At first I thought it was a joke he had played on me, for I've been going to him for years. So I laughed and told him not to frighten me. But soon I saw by his manner that it wasn't a joke at all. The ring was really gone!"

"We turned everything over, I looked up and down the floor, into crevices and every possible place. I could think of. Then I grew hysterical and I really believe that in spite of his knowing me well he began to suspect me of some ruse. As I leaned against the show-case and wept I heard something tinkle, and there, hanging to the fuzzy sleeve of my jacket, was my ring!"

"I never mentioned a word of the occurrence at home, but, of course, Aunt Mary had to go to that jeweler's the very next day to have a pin clasp repaired, and she heard the whole story. By that time the ring was beginning to get on my nerves to such an extent that I couldn't sleep. I'd wake up in the middle of the night in a cold perspiration, having dreamed that I had lost it. I'd hide it in all sorts of queer places for fear it would be stolen, and then I would nearly go into spasms because I had forgotten where I had put the ring."

"Finally, after I dropped it at the matinee one day and had a terrible time rescuing it from under the feet of a fat man who sat near me, I decided to deposit it with mother's valuables at the bank and there's where it reposes at present. Do you wonder that I look anxious and worn?"

"Well, it's a rather poor story," yawned the chum. "Now, I've got something really interesting to tell you. Do you know—"

"Tom's coming next week," interrupted the engaged girl, blushing prettily, "and I'm going to ask him to exchange the ring for one exactly like it, so he can be the very first one to put it on my finger. And never again will I ridicule Aunt Mary's warnings or call them foolish superstitions."

"If Tom is as clever as he thinks he is," said the chum, "he'll simply pretend to change the ring and then he'll put the same one on your finger and you and your Aunt Mary will not know the difference."

"Tom would never deceive me, never!" declared the engaged girl, indignantly.

"Oh, you dear, witty thing!" said the chum.
